This program is free, online, supplemental enrichment. It is not a substitute for school, and it is not accredited. It does not award degrees or diplomas, and it does not grant academic credit. It offers certificates of completion only. It does not satisfy compulsory attendance, homeschool approval, or any licensing, certification, academy, or continuing-education requirement of any state or profession (including law enforcement and emergency medical services), and it does not qualify the holder for any licensed occupation. Homeschool note: these are supplemental materials only — your family must obtain approval of its own education plan locally. Please read: This program is free, online, supplemental enrichment.
